

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Amy Morton

Phone: (478) 747-7450

Email: amy@southernmajority.com

Website: lisaforga.com

Lisa Campbell wins race for Georgia State House District 35

Campbell becomes the first woman elected to represent District 35 in the Georgia State House of Representatives

ATLANTA, (November 11, 2022) —Georgia. Cobb County business owner and community leader Lisa Campbell will represent District 35 in the Georgia State House of Representatives after receiving more than 55% of the vote in her race against GOP Candidate, Robert Trim. Campbell's win is a historic one in that she will become the first woman to represent the people of District 35, which lies within Cobb County and includes Acworth and Kennesaw.

"I am immensely honored to be the first woman elected to represent the people of House District 35. I have to thank all of my supporters and volunteers who gave of their time, talent, and treasure to enable me to run this successful campaign. I made the decision to run for office because I believe in the power of equality for all Georgians. I believe equity is the key to our shared opportunities for jobs, for justice, for freedom, for happiness and well being," said Campbell. "I will work for all Georgians to ensure that everyone has a voice in our state government."

The campaign garnered a high level of grassroots support from members of the community. "It has been such an honor to have the support of so many people of varying backgrounds, ages, and perspectives as I have campaigned for this office," Campbell emphasized. "I pledge to build unity and consensus, while working to restore honesty and integrity in The Georgia State House of Representatives. My goal is to represent the community I love in a manner that will bring us together as we create a Better Georgia for All!"

Campbell's legislative priorities include investing in public education, expanding access to healthcare, protecting reproductive rights, securing voting rights, strengthening public safety, and empowering an inclusive economy.

Campbell received support from voters of all backgrounds and received endorsements from The Georgia Association of Educators, Planned Parenthood Southeast Advocates, Fair Fight, The National Democratic Redistricting Committee, Georgia Equality, National Abortion Rights Action League, Georgia's WIN List, Emily's List, Georgia Conservation Voters, Committee for a New Georgia, Mom's Demand Action Gun Sense Candidate designation, Emerge Georgia, HER Term, the AFL-CIO, and Cobb County Commission Chairwoman, Lisa Cupid.

About Lisa Campbell

A longtime Georgian, Lisa Campbell is a respected business owner and community volunteer with more than 30 years of professional experience. She has worked as a strategic business consultant, holding leadership roles in global marketing and technology organizations, and is ready to put her professional skills to work to create a better Georgia for all.

Campbell is a graduate of Cobb County Public Schools and the University of Georgia. Campbell has served as a volunteer and worked for organizations like Hands On Atlanta, InCommunity, The United Way, Atlanta History Center and Georgia Conservancy.

Campbell is running to champion issues important to District 35 including expanding healthcare, empowering educators, protecting voting rights, building a sustainable environment, protecting reproductive freedom and women's rights, creating economic opportunities, and promoting unity, inclusivity and opportunity for all Georgians.

###